

Fire safety: what's next?

A half-day learning and networking seminar

FREE for CIH members to attend
£50+VAT for non-members

26 October 2018
London Fire Brigade HQ, London

Chartered
Institute of Housing

08:30	Registration
09:00	Welcome London Fire Brigade Commissioner (TBC)
09.15	Chairs Welcome Sir Ken Knight CBE QFSM, ex London fire commissioner, ex government chief fire and rescue adviser for England and chair of the government's independent fire safety panel
09.30	Faulty white goods Charlie Pugsley LFB deputy assistant commissioner, describing the latest on faulty white goods, product recall and how landlords can help
10.00	The residents perspective and involvement Tenant representative to explain how they have been involved in reviewing fire safety with their landlord Joan Swift, chair of the PA Housing group tenant scrutiny panel
10.25	The Hackitt review: A tenant perspective on the latest thinking Darren Hartley, CEO, TAROE Trust
10.45	Break
11.15	Intelligent Procurement Marc and David will provide advice for landlords to ensure that quality and not price is the "driver" in procuring fire safety products and services, as recommended in the Hackitt review Marc Baines and David Ashby of the South East Consortium

Fire safety: what's next?

A half-day learning and networking seminar

FREE for CIH members to attend
£50+VAT for non-members

26 October 2018
London Fire Brigade HQ, London

Chartered
Institute of Housing

11.45	Fire safety in Specialised Housing  Andy explains how we should assess our most vulnerable tenants in sheltered and supported housing.  Andy Cloke
12.15	Panel discussion  This session will be interactive and delegates will have the opportunity to ask our panel questions  Panel of all speakers and chair
13.00	Close

**Programme may be subject to change*

DRAFT